PROVISIONAL LEGISLATURE.

Special Meeting of the Executive and Advisory Councils.

There was a special meeting of the Executive and Advisory Councils this afternoon. Present: President Dole, Ministers Hatch, King and Smith; Councilors Wilder (Vice President), McCallister, Allen, Waterhouse, King, Tammey, Young, Nott, Morgan, Madonia, Brown, Bolte and D. B. Smith.

A petition in the native language was read from Kaupapa of Maui, asking to be restored to his civil rights, he having served a short term for larceny. The petition had a certificate of present good character and petitioner's fidelity to the Provisional Government.

The petition was ordered granted. An invitation to attend the celebration of the Fourth was accepted. Minister Smith presented the report of the Attorney-General for the past biennial period. It was ordered printed in English only. He also presented the report of the Board of Health, of which the same disposition was made excepting that the printing was not restricted to English.

Minister Hatch introduced a bill providing for the proclamation of the Republic of Hawaii and the transfer of the property and authority of the Provisional Government to the Republic of Hawaii.
The bill to transfer part of Puna to North Hilo District passed second reading.
Mr. Emmelhuth asked the Executive for information as to whether it was discretionary with the Collector

General of Customs to allow immigrants without $50 cash in the pockets of each.

President Dole thought it was discretionary, as an incoming passenger might have valuable property. Mr. Emmelhuth did not consider it right that immigrants should be landed here in the manner as reported a number of Japanese brought by the S. S. Aikoku Maru were.

President Dole asked if they were really being so landed.

Mr. Emmelhuth quoted this morning's Advertiser as authority.

Mr. Waterhouse (sotto voce)—You should not believe everything you read in the Advertiser. If you saw a statement in the Bulletin you might decide it was correct.

Minister Hatch said the matter had not yet been considered by the Executive.

Under suspension of the rules, the bill relating to the Republic of Hawaii was passed through its final stages.

Mr. Brown presented the report of the Judiciary Committee on the recommendation of the Board of Prison Inspectors for certain pardons. They recommend a full pardon to J. K. Mills, sentenced on May 5, 1900, to nine years' imprisonment for manslaughter, his conduct having been very exemplary in prison. They recommend pardons to Lui, a South Sea Islander, and to a Japanese prisoner in poor health, both conditioned on the prisoners' leaving the country. They further recommend the pardoning of Kapa-kui and Kehaliku, natives imprisoned for long terms. Mr. Brown complimented Lui for his brave conduct when Ryan tried to escape.

Minister Smith agreed with the report excepting as to Mills, although he felt sympathy with the prisoner.

President Dole felt like requiring a full statement from Mills of all he knows about the crime for which he was convicted. There was great difficulty at the trial in getting at the facts, and he thought before Mills asked for pardon he should offer to do this.

Mr. Brown said the petition was not from Mills but from the Prison Inspectors.

Minister Smith cited conclusions reached by prison inspectors in Massachusetts. It was found that the exercise of the pardoning power there had reduced the average period of confinement of life prisoners to below a ten years' term.

Mr. Emmelhuth was opposed to a too free exercise of the pardoning power. He would only concur in the pardon of Lui.

Mr. D. B. Smith—A cold-blooded murderer.

Minister Smith said it could hardly be called a cold-blooded murder. The man he wanted to kill was suspected of destroying the prisoner's home, but unfortunately he killed the wrong man.

Mr. Brown, although opposed to indiscriminate pardoning, thought the birthday of the Republic was a good time for exercising the power in cases for which good reasons could be given.

The names were voted on separately as to pardons, with the following result:

Kahaliku, granted; Hapaku, granted; the Japanese, convicted of manslaughter on second trial for the murder of his wife, granted on condition he leave the country; Lui, granted on condition he leave the country.

Minister Smith made the motion in each of the foregoing cases.

Mr. Brown moved to adopt the report with regard to J. K. Mills.

Mr. D. B. Smith seconded the motion.

Mr. Wilder said it had always been customary on particular occasions to grant pardons on the recommendation of the Prison Inspectors, and he did not see why an exception should be made in the case of Mr. Mills.

The motion carried.

Mr. Brown called attention to this being the last meeting of the Advisory Council under the Provisional Government, and suggested that a resolution recognizing the event should be passed.

Minister Smith concurred in the idea. He paid a high tribute to the self-sacrificing devotion of the members of the Advisory Council. Without their assistance the Executive Council would have had an extremely difficult course.

President Dole desired to express his highest appreciation of the devotion of the Advisory Council. Its members had served without pay. They had met questions that would have puzzled any body of men to a great extent. Their work could not be successfully assailed except on political grounds. He thanked them cordially for their assistance to him, making his burdens much lighter and his course easier than otherwise would have been the case.

Minister Smith and other voices of approval complimented the Secretary, Dr. C. T. Rodgers, on his work.

Mr. Waterhouse thought the news paper reporters deserved thanks for their work.

Minister Smith—A necessary evil.

At 3:20 the Councils of the P. G. adjourned forever.
